On January 13, 2021 Noah's Hope Animal Rescue out of Sioux City, Iowa with the help of local volunteers assisted the O'Brien County Sheriff's Office with a large scale dog rescue after an O'Brien County resident passed away, leaving no one to care for the animals. There were a total of 39 dogs on this acreage. Nine of the thirty-nine dogs were put down by law enforcement after consultation with a local veterinarian due to the poor condition of the dogs. Seven more dogs were already dead upon the arrival of the Sheriff's Office and Noah's Hope.

Volunteers from Noah's Hope were able to humanely catch the 23 remaining dogs, several of which were puppies, and bring them to their rescue shelter. The O'Brien County Sheriff's Office wishes to recognize the outstanding service Noah's Hope and their volunteers provided. The assistance provided by Noah's Hope is greatly appreciated.

Noah's Hope Animal Rescue is based out of Sioux City, Iowa and provides a no-time limit rescue shelter to animals for as long as it takes to find suitable homes. They are not federally or municipally funded and are supported through donations and adoptions. If you are interested in learning more about Noah's Hope or adopting a new pet check out their website at www.noahshopeanimalrescue.com or their Facebook page.
